

Elizabeth Elisalde

Objective

---

Obtain a position as a team member in a people oriented organization where I can maximize my customer service experience in an environment that will help me achieve my lifetime goals, as well as benefit the business.

Experience

---

February 2011- December 2012                      Flowers and More by Gemma                      Fresno, CA
(Seasonal Employment)

Floral Designer

- Design floral arrangements for various events
(Valentine's day, Mother's day, Christmas, Weddings and Others)
- Answer phone calls, receive messages and take incoming orders
- Processed flowers as they came in
- Cleaned and organized the shop

---

June 2012-September 2012                      Opinionology                      Rexburg, ID

Survey Conductor

- Called individuals and collected survey data

---

April 2010-August 2010                      The Island Waterpark                      Fresno, CA

Lifeguard

- Watch guest and provide for their safety
- Clean up trash and place items in correct places after closing
- CPR/ADE, basic first aid, and professional rescuer certified by the American Red Cross

Education

---

April 2012-Present                      Brigham Young University-Idaho                      Rexburg, ID

Horticulture Major

- Expected Graduation Date: April 2014
- Floral Design Emphasis

---

August 2010-April 2012                      Fresno City College                      Fresno, CA

General Studies

- Transferred from Fresno City College on to Brigham Young University-Idaho with 49 Credits
Courses taken include computer information and introduction to photography

References

---

References are available on request.